

CHULA VISTA COMMUNITY COLLABORATIVE
PARTNERS MEETING MINUTES
February 14, 2017

1. Margarita Holguin welcomed everyone and introductions were made.
2. Youth Coalition-Resiliency Screening, Margarita Holguin. The Youth Coalition is being revived with the intent of addressing issues of youth. They are hosting a screening of “Resiliency” film at Chula Vista High School on Feb. 21 from 3:00 – 4:00. The film Resilience: The Biography of Stress and the Science of Hope is 45 minutes long and will be followed by a panel discussion.
3. Community Health Improvement Partners-Suicide Prevention Council Report, Lora Cayanan. Flyers were passed out and a PowerPoint presentation covered the general structure, subcommittees and the 2016 report. Lora discussed data tracking, trainings and the development of an Action Plan in 2011. For additional information contact Lora Cayanan at lcayanan@sdchip.org.
4. Scripps Well Being Center, Kendra Brandstein. Kendra presented information on many of their programs, including: Youth (Camp Scripps, mentoring, Health Prof 101); Seniors (Groups, Health Chat, Health Fair); Maternal & Youth; Breast Health (outreach & education); Chronic Disease (stroke & brain injury); Caregiver; Diabetes Management; Parkinson’s; Your Heart-Your Life; Patient Community Services; Youth hospital tours; and more. Classes are open to anyone, regardless of insurance provider. For additional information call (619) 862-6600 or 800-727-4777.
5. Community Events Calendar, Arturo Angeles. CVCC is working on an Events Calendar in Google form. The link will be emailed out. Partners complete the form and designate a category. Information submitted is reviewed by CVCC and posted to the calendar. For additional information contact Arturo at Arturo.angeles@cvesd.org.
6. Immigration-Know Your Rights, Margarita Holguin. CVCC is getting information out to the community to increase “Know Your Rights” awareness; information on Pathway to immigration; Question & Answer meetings in the community; and education about rights. CVCC is partnering with Jewish Family Services and other partners for community presentations. Flyers were on the resource table.
7. Center for Healthy Eating and Activity Research, Takisha Corbett. The Center offers pediatric obesity services for children. The presentation provided information on current treatment programs; parenting skills; CHEAR mission; pilot study results; and FRESH program. CHEAR is always recruiting youth and adults for the no-cost treatment studies at their two sites: La Jolla and Chula Vista. They are currently looking for another South Bay location, as they are now in the CV Library. For additional information call 855-827-3498 or email cheaar@ucsd.edu.
8. Champions for Health, Liz Brave. Physicians donate their time to provide coordinated care to patients. The “Live Well Speakers Bureau” offer free interactive presentations to groups of parents, students, employees by medical professionals. Presentations are at your location and there are a variety of topics. For more information or to schedule a presentation contact Liz Brave at liz.brave@championsfh.org or call (858) 300-2789. Project Access provides specialized care to low-income, uninsured individuals. Patients are referred by a primary care physician or community clinic. Once approved, resources will be reviewed to see what is available. Additional information can be found on www.championsforhealth.org.
9. Announcements were made. Flyers and handouts from the presentations and attendees were available on the resource table.
